WRIT APPEAL No.1723 of 2005

J U D G M E N T (Per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The writ petitioner/appellant being aggrieved of the election of the second respondent to Water Users' Association filed a petition being O.P.No.2 of 2005 on 09-06-2005 before the first respondent-Election Authority. His grievance is that the Election Authority is not disposing of the matter, therefore, he filed the writ petition. The learned Single Judge found that the O.P had been filed only in June, 2005 and by August, 2005, the writ petition was filed and it was not expected that the Election Authority could have decided the matter within two months and therefore, he dismissed the writ petition. We do not find any illegality in the order passed by the learned Single Judge. However, while disposing of this writ appeal, we direct the Election Authority to take up the matter expeditiously. No order as to costs.
